

The FCC should step away from this issue. There appears to be no reason for the FCC to limit in any way the information found on XM Satellite Radio. I urge the FCC to reject Petition 04-160 from the NAB in the strongest terms as antithetical to freedom of the airwaves and the reasons radio was established in the first place.